

(IV) Public Lecture/Seminar Series 2018

To celebrate the 20th anniversary of Mae Fah Luang University, Asian Research Center for International Development (ARCID) has launched a series of public lectures/seminars on East Asia in 2018. As a think tank conducting policy research on East Asian development, it has been organizing the lecture/seminar series to highlight the development and security challenges of China, Japan, Korea and Southeast Asia. Prominent speakers have been invited to deliberate on the challenges at Mae Fah Luang University.

To continue our lecture/seminar series, a public lecture on China will be conducted according to the following:

Topic
