

Visiting Professors

1. H.E. Dr. Surin Pitsuwan
Secretary General of ASEAN (2008-2012)
Minister to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Thailand (1997-2001)
2. H.E. Mr. Suvidhya Simaskul
Secretary General, Thai-Laos Association
Deputy Chairman, Thai-Myanmar Association
3. Professor Emeritus Dr. Suchit Bunbongkarn
4. Professor Dr. Supachai Yavaprabhas
5. Professor Dr. Supang Chantavanich

Scholarships & Financial Aids

The Division of Student Development Affairs offers a number of scholarships to MFU students through centrally administered scholarship programs. Students seeking financial aids are encouraged to contact the Division for supports.

Contact: Division of Student Development Affairs, Mae Fah Luang University
Telephone: +66 5391 6381-2 Website: <http://scholarship.mfu.ac.th/main/>
E-mail: studentloan.mfu@gmail.com

Mae Fah Luang University

School of Liberal Arts

Bachelor of Arts in International Development

Contact information: Division of Admission

333, Tasud, Muang, Chiang Rai, Thailand, 57100
Telephone: +66 (0) 5391 6103-6 Facsimile: +66 (0) 5391 6105
Website: <http://www.mfu.ac.th/division/admission/>
E-mail: admission@mfu.ac.th

Bachelor of Arts in International Development

The program aims to provide in-depth knowledge on international socio-economic development for future graduates who shall be able to apply theories to their future practices and work both in government and private sectors at international level.

Program's Objectives

To produce graduates who;

- have an expertise in international development principles in international context.
- have capability in applying their expertise with problem-solving skills to various situations at international level.

Career Opportunities:

- Government / public sectors (both domestic and international)
- International organizations
- Ministry of foreign Affairs
- Policy and planning / human resources management in public or private sectors
- Political positions
- Independent / business owner
- Further study in a graduate level

Course Structure

Total credit requirement

123 credits

General education courses:

30 credits

Humanities and Social Science

3 credits

Languages

15 credits

Information Technology

3 credits

Major courses:

87 credits

Core courses:

30 credits

Major requirement:

33 credits

Major elective:

24 credits

Free electives (minimum):

6 credits

Program Duration:

4 years

English is used as a medium of instruction.

Tuition Fees

Thai Student

30,000 Baht/Semester

Foreign Student

39,000 Baht/Semester

Areas of Study

- International Development Theory
- Principle of International Political Economy
- Research Methodology in International Development
- UN and Multinational Organizations in International Development
- Role of Great Powers in International Development
- Economics of Multinational Corporation
- Gender Issues in International Development
- ASEAN's Development Policy
- Transparency and Good Governance in Development
- Project Management for International Development
- Professional Training in International Development
- Communication, Democratization, and Development
- Impact of Globalization to Locality
- Transformational Leadership
- Seminar in Development in ASEAN
- Independent Study on HM King Bhumipol Adulyadej's Royal Initiatives

